

2nd Annual Fiddlin' at The Fairgrounds Sponsorship

Thank you for considering being part of the 2nd Annual Old-Time and Bluegrass Fiddlers' Convention at The Washington County Fairgrounds in Abingdon, VA. The board of directors of the Fairgrounds, a 501c-3 is looking for creative ways to raise money for capital improvements at the Fairgrounds with a long-term goal of building a permanent stage to bring additional opportunities throughout the year to our town and county. With the partnership of the Town of Abingdon, Washington County, The Crooked Road, Local Businesses and Private Donations we will be hosting the 2nd Annual Fiddlers' Convention June 9-10, 2023. Our event will be a traditional Old-Time and Bluegrass Fiddlers' Convention, like other successful ones in the state with youth and adult competition, band competition, camping, vendors, food trucks, campsite jamming, golf cart parade and more. Our emcee for the weekend will be the legendary Tim White from Song of The Mountains. The board has a three year partnership with the Town and County, we truly feel if coordinated correctly, this has potential to bring bluegrass enthusiast from across the county and grow into one of the most successful events in Washington County, VA and we would love for you to be part of this growing event. Our first year we had over 2,700 people in attendance from 11 different states and 120 participants. Thank you for your consideration. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Blankenship 276-628-9109 fiddlinatthefairgrounds@gmail.com
